“I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.”

Revelation 22:13

By referring to himself as the Alpha and the Omega — the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet — Christ affirms that he is co-eternal with the Father.

A student reads in the concourse of Hesburgh Library.