The Fort Howard Corporation, which has merged with Georgia Pacific, is a diversified manufacturer of paper products. Its former chairman and chief executive officer, Paul Schierl ('57, ’61 JD), led the management group that, with the Morgan Stanley Group, Inc., took the company private in 1988. He retired from the corporation in 1990 and currently serves as president of the Cornerstone Foundation of Northeastern Wisconsin, Inc.

Paul is a member of the advisory councils for the Notre Dame Law School, the Salvation Army, Wisconsin Policy Research, and the Green Bay Packers. He is also co-founder and past president of the Greater Green Bay Community Foundation and a former member of the Saint Mary’s College Board of Trustees. He has five children, all of whom are Notre Dame or Saint Mary’s graduates.

The Fort Howard Corporation Endowed Collection in Western European History has enabled the Hesburgh Libraries to enhance resources in this field, particularly with respect to important reference works and volumes in social history. Outstanding examples include The Encyclopedia of the Third Reich, edited by Christian Zentner; The Cambridge Social History of Britain, 1750–1950, edited by F.M.L. Thompson; Barbara Kanner’s Women in English Social History, 1800–1914; and Joan Perkins’ Women and Marriage in 19th Century England. 