Dr. Gregory Hoffman ('73) and his wife, Susanne, established this library collection to honor their parents. Greg is a board-certified orthopedic surgeon and a clinical professor in the Fort Wayne Orthopedic Residency Program. He has served on Notre Dame’s Advisory Council for the College of Science since 1999. Susanne is a registered nurse. Since 1989, she has been a volunteer and an officer of the Parent Teacher Association. Greg and Susanne have four children: Amanda ('03), Matthew ('06 Indiana University), Claire ('07), and Rachel ('09).

The late Charles Norman McCullough, a veteran of World War II, retired after 38 years of service with the Railway Express Agency. He was an active member of St. Peter’s Roman Catholic Church in Merchantville, New Jersey. His wife, Marie, also deceased, was a registered nurse.

The late Dr. Arthur Hoffman ('37), a retired anesthesiologist, was active in Boy Scouts of America, the Sierra Club, and St. Charles Catholic Church in Fort Wayne, Indiana. He was the Notre Dame Club of Fort Wayne’s Man of the Year in 1969. His wife, Mary, is a registered nurse and the mother of nine children, three of whom are Notre Dame graduates. She delivers meals to the homebound, visits the ill, and serves as a volunteer for Bishop’s Appeal.

The Hoffman Family Collection helps to ensure that students within the Department of Preprofessional Studies at Notre Dame have the library resources necessary for an outstanding program of study.
