Past chairperson of Notre Dame’s Advisory Council for the Hesburgh Libraries and a member of the Edward Frederick Sorin Society, William McCarthy (‘60) began his career in the trust department of American Security and Trust Company in Washington, D.C., where he worked from 1960 until 1966. During that time he attended George Washington University, earning an MBA in 1966, when he was hired by Farmers National Bank in Ashtabula, Ohio. In 1975, he was named president and director of the bank, and in 1977, he became president and chief executive officer of ABS Industries.

Bill is survived by three daughters: Anne, Molly, and Julie (‘90).

The McCarthy Collection enables the Hesburgh Libraries to respond to the increasing demand for materials in Chinese studies, which has resulted from an increased world focus on China and a growing number of Chinese students attending Notre Dame. Acquisitions made through the McCarthy Collection include subscriptions to sources of unofficial news and analysis of events in mainland China, communist and exile opposition publications, the leading independent Hong Kong newspaper, and an important Taiwanese newspaper.
